A Busy Week-End With Opportunities on Every Side at Ogilvie'sA Refreshing Oasis

Shopping oases we're speaking of!

Perhaps you feel the same way about what we have in mind.

It's just this. In a day when so many things to wear are things unwearable, we believe you and every woman of cultured tastes, who want clothes to satisfy an ideal rather than merely supply a need, look upon a store such as ours as an oasis of individuality in a desert of standardization. With us the selection of fashions has always been looked upon as a field for the artistically inclined, not one for the impersonal purchasing agent. It is not surprising, therefore, that women are re-discovering with renewed appreciation a great shopping truth—that the store which is part and parcel of the life of the community, which knows and meets its tastes and preferences, is the store of complete shopping satisfaction—a refreshing oasis in a desert of standardization.

Camp Physiological SupportsNew Means of Relief and Comfort

For fallen or sagging organs and weak abdominal muscles—garments that will provide firm uplift, remove devitalizing pressures and hold the body in perfect poise—with true comfort. Camp Physiological Supports are a real boon to thousands of women who wish to retain lost vitality and energy.

When you add to that a flattering, yet upward cupping effect, supporting the abdominal walls but pressing only ever so softly and lightly over the hips, you have the ideal garment for the very prevalent visceroptosis.

With a complete absence of clumsiness that preserves a trim appearance, and with the scientific Camp principle of adjustment that enables and corsetiere to fit and dispense them—these garments are already proving one of the most beneficial as means of relief and comfort.

Sizes from 22 inch to 40 inch waist measurement.

TRUCK WRECKED ON STEEP HILL

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., Aug. 23.—When the driver of a truck, loaded with garden produce and hauling a trailer, lost control of the machine as it was descending the Fallston hill, the truck crashed into a telephone pole in Beaver street. The driver and his helper were injured, and his cargo scattered over the landscape.

James Koperski, 24, of Toledo, O., is in the Beaver Valley General hospital suffering from two fractured ribs and lacerations. Thomas Kruger, 18, of Toledo, suffered severe lacerations and bruises.

According to police, the driver was making his trip from Toledo to Pittsburgh and was not familiar with the dangerous grade and the truck was beyond his control when the bottom of the hill was reached. Crashing to the left, the truck narrowly missed the home of Chief of Police A. P. Black, where several machines have crashed, and continued 20 feet further, bringing up against a telephone pole. The cab was knocked over the machine, and the truck and trailer overturned.

HOLD SUSPECT IN BOMB OUTRAGE

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Aug. 23.—Tony Liscatro, 30, of 622 Twenty-fourth street, was held for court by Justice J. Walter Lewis, New Brighton, as a suspect in the bombing of the home of Mrs. Angelo Perri in Patterson township, August 13.

Liscatro was arrested at his home by state and borough police, county detectives and Constable George Paxton. Police say the man served four years in the Western penitentiary for robbery. He was committed from McKean county and had reached here since his release, police say.

The home of Mrs. Perri, who was recovering from a major operation in the Providence hospital, was destroyed in an early morning explosion and fire. Police found evidence of a bomb, oil-soaked rags and shavings. They conducted a quiet investigation since and declare they uncovered facts to connect Liscatro with the plot.

Mr. Sinclair's 18-Day Diet

Adherents of the "eye for eye, tooth for tooth" doctrine, and believers in justice for all will find much to get riled up over in the announcement that Harry F. Sinclair and Henry Mason Day have appealed for executive clemency to free themselves from the District of Columbia Jail and Asylum. Information to this effect was released from the Department of Justice and by Leo A. Rover, United States attorney in Washington, recently.

It is understood to be the cause for the appeal, and it is extremely probable, since executive clemency could only be expected on such grounds. It is said that Mr. Sinclair, in particular, has lost as much as 15 pounds and is undergoing constant mental anguish. Mr. Day is also reported to be losing weight and peace of mind.

The sentence imposed upon Mr. Sinclair, allowing time for good behavior, has until Nov. 22 to run, while that of Mr. Day will last approximately two more months. The former has been in confinement since May 6 and has already completed one term for contempt of the senate in refusing to answer questions put to him regarding certain doubtful oil leases. His second sentence started July 21. He has not left the jail and has been faithful to his duties as jail pharmacist, although it was feared for a time that the illness of Mrs. Sinclair would necessitate a break in the sentence.

Humanity has been advised by a great teacher to turn the other cheek to the enemy, in case of insult, or injury. The world turned both cheeks to Mr. Sinclair and permitted his slaps. Not content with that, he kicked it in the face and walked on its hands. Now, after lethargy has been overcome and he has been given a small share of the punishment he deserved, he complains because he can not gain weight in jail and be happy.

Bremen Stowaways Returned

The five stowaways aboard the Bremen when the new North German Lloyd liner sailed from New York, July 27, were returned to that port, Monday, having been brought back third class by the Stuttgart of the same line.

The quintet was made up of two Brooklyn youths and the sister of one of them and two brothers from Seattle. What punishment, if any, will be meted out to the five has not come to our notice, but if some punishment is not administered it will be a mistaken policy. Shipping lines do not run their vessels for the purposes of philanthropy. It's a business with them. They make a charge for transportation of any class. If the five had stolen money or goods equal in value to the cost of their passages, they would hardly be able to escape punishment. Then why should they not be punished for taking to themselves that which is the equivalent of money?

The stowaway business is being overdone. Stowaway cases are not of rare occurrence. They have become common. Vessel after vessel reaches our ports with one or more stowaways aboard. What was a rarity has in recent years become a common practice, and it will continue to be until examples are made of those who take advantage of the hurriedly which marks the sailing of a big liner to hide themselves away, knowing that, once at sea, the liner will not be turned back to land them.

The New Labor Day

Once upon a time Labor day for the working man really was a day of labor. It was necessary for him to get himself some kind of a uniform, and be on hand at a general rendezvous, and then march mile upon mile in a parade, and then listen by the hour to interminable speeches. Whatever else there was on Labor day for the working man was more or less incidental.

There was good reason for the old-fashioned Labor day celebration. By long processions labor then demonstrated its power. By speeches it brought to focus before the public its importance and dignity, though wages were small and standards of living comparatively low.

Well paid, well fed, well housed, educated and reasonably amused, labor need resort now neither to pomp nor argument. Its place in the sun is established and Labor day has become a real holiday. That is as it should be. Labor day, this year—the first Monday next month—is to be properly observed by workmen. They will enjoy outings with their friends, or they will attend ball games, or perhaps golf—and you'd be surprised how many of them are top-notch golfers—or they may put in the day pottering around the house or overhauling the family car.

At any rate they won't have to trudge miles through the city in a parade, as used to be the custom.

A Path To His Door

If a man preach a better sermon, write a better book or build a better mouse trap than his neighbor, though he build his hut in the woods the world will beat a path to his door.

Emerson's memorable expression is epitomized in the ambition and success of Edward E. Bender, whose death Monday at Sturgeon Falls, Ont., removed from the civic, industrial and commercial life of Canton one of its outstanding leaders.

Years ago Ed. Bender bought out a restaurant. He so conducted it that, literally, the world did beat a path to its door. Bender's is favorably known from coast to coast.

Properly running a first class restaurant was by no means this respected citizen's only accomplishment. Participation in worth-while civic movements, keeping a good-natured shoulder at the wheel of commercial life, building, always building, good will for Canton took the greater portion of his time in late years—and these, too, are things for which his intimates will remember him.

HASKIN LETTER DAILY

By Frederic J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—In one of the plays made popular by the famous actor Joseph Jefferson a quarter of a century and more ago, a rural character of the hayside type, while visiting in a big city, drops a letter in a corner mail box for the first time in his life and as the lid clangs shut, exclaims: "Wal, I s'pose that letter's there now."

No mail service is quite so instantaneous as that but, all things considered, modern mail delivery is phenomenally expeditious. For two cents a letter is transported rapidly over great distances on land and far beyond the seas. A letter may be sent, for instance, from any place in the United States to any place in England for two cents. If an individual attempted to take the message in person the cost would be nearer $200. The magic of multiplication makes this miracle of cheap postage possible and yet it is on the fast letter postage that the post office department makes money. On the slower classes it loses heavily.

The existence of this situation is one of the matters occupying the special attention of President Hoover. Hundreds of thousands of Americans who voted for him had as their principal reason a firm belief that his practical experience in business and as an organizer would enable him to reorganize the business activities of the government so as to stop losses and, perhaps, show a profit. The President has taken particular interest in the post office as it is the greatest business branch of the government. It is the only branch which sells services to the public, just as a private concern would do, and on a tremendous scale. The president now is awaiting completion of the latest annual audit of post office department accounts, expected early this autumn, to go into the problem in a practical, business-like manner.

Here is the business situation as it now stands, the figures being for 1928. On the profit side of the ledger is the big figure of $7,178,286. This is the clear profit made by Uncle Sam in carrying letters for two cents apiece. Only two other items show profit: postal savings, $550,877 and special delivery letters, $52,155. There is another item listed as "unassignable" which appears on the profit side. This amounts to $12,595,752 but the auditors have not decided from what services it arises.

On the other side of the ledger there is an ocean of red ink. Every other postal service is carried at a loss. The big losses are: second class matter, such as newspapers, $35,241,085; third class, $6,285,850; fourth class, $7,039,930; and foreign, $1,444,784. There is a loss of $9,220,432 on registered mail and $9,015,537 on money orders. Sometimes the privilege of franking mail accorded government officers is criticized. While it is a dead loss, the cost is relatively insignificant, amounting to only $512,182 in 1928. Mail is carried free for the blind and this cost $39,652 last year.

So the business, as a whole, shows a loss. For 1928 the big postal business establishment showed a deficit of $33,363,148 and congress had to appropriate money out of other funds to make up this operating loss.

Available records of the post office department show that in only 14 out of 92 years has the post office department operated at a profit. Losses were incurred in 78 years.

The postal deficit controversy has been going on for more than a century. Every congress has debated it more or less acrimoniously. There seems to be no doubt about the profit earned on first class letters at two cents apiece. But the various groups of persons using the other classes of postal service have always quarreled as to which class constituted the real burden. The post office figures throw almost the entire blame on second class mail. But users of second class mail have challenged the methods of arriving at figures. To settle the controversy, the president has instructed Third Assistant Postmaster General Tilton to conduct the most careful and inquisitive inquiry into the true sources of every item of deficit.

Each year sees an increase in the amount of business done by mail and while trade of some sort could drag along in local communities without mail service, business in a national sense would be dead. The growth of patronage of the mails is indicated by the growth in revenues collected over a short period of time. In 1906 total postal revenues amounted to only $167,932,782. Last year total revenues were $693,633,921.

Questions and Answers.

By Frederic J. Haskin.

Q. Where is Greenwich Village in New York City?

A. Greenwich Village is in the vicinity of Washington Square. In the early history of New York a settlement was made here, and many historic events are recorded as having taken place in the Village. But the city finally absorbed the Village, and today it has no official or formal recognition. Greenwich Village, now merely represents a small section of the city south of 14th Street and on the west of Fifth Avenue, bounded on the south by 4th Street, and on the west by Sheridan Square, and the streets in the neighborhood of the Greenwich Village theater. The Village is famous because of its studios, small art shops, restaurants, crooked streets, and its population of artists, art students, and writers.

Q. Who holds the speed record for speed boats?

A. On March 25, 1929, Gar Wood shattered the salt and fresh water records by covering the mile Course at Miami, Florida, with Miss America at the rate of 83.123 miles an hour.

Q. Who first used the expression, Ship of State?

A. It was first used by Machiavelli in his political treatise "The Prince." It was used by Longfellow in his "Building of the Ship."

Q. What is the law of diminishing returns? E. H. A. It is an economic law, which states that in any given stage an increase of labor or capital applied beyond a certain point in the cultivation of land, causes a less than proportionate increase in the produce raised from a given area. This law is generally attributed to Ricardo, but it was discovered considerably earlier.

Q. Is there any simple remedy for cracks or abrasions between the toes? D. S.

A. They should be carefully cleansed with soap and water, dried with absorbent cotton and covered with zinc ointment. Absorbent cotton should be used to keep the raw surfaces apart.

Jin must have discovered long ago that they weren't real butterflies, for he doesn't seem in the least interested. Rosalie said to be sure and mention a couple of other novelties which she saw in her rambles through the shops, so we mustn't forget them. One is that it is considered the thing to wear a rose in the mouth of your fox fur, and the other is that there is a fad just now to introduce whenever possible in a girl's wardrobe the flower which represents her birth month—as a good luck symbol. There are many ways of using it—in boudoir decorations.

one of the most magnificent jewelry shops in the world catercornered from another celebrated jewel establishment. It is the branch of a house famous in London, Paris and Nice, and reputed to have collected the largest gems in the world. The diamond now is for Kohinoor in diamonds, emeralds, rubies, etc. The smartly dressed lady confines herself largely to a single adornment—which must be a whooper. The quarter of a million dollar diamond is no longer the inspiration for a double page spread in the Sunday papers. It is just a little trinket.

But a return to simplicity is noted among some catercornered. Finger snapping and prancing mammy singers, vo-de-do, skiddle-de-cow, and poop-poo-pudeo crooners are out. The now popular theme songs in the talkies are stressing old fashioned sentimentalities of the Gay Nineties. Gymnastics and moans are no longer a necessity in putting over a song. A conspicuous example of the new vogue was Rudy Vallee, who, with the slightest gesture and sing-song, much in the manner of a bashful boy at school, knocked the town cold for a time. All his songs were of the moon, spoon and June syrupiness.

Another turn of the cycle marks a simplicity in plays. The bed room farces, the naked revues and ex-plicitation of perversion themes fail to half fill the theatres. The hit dramas have a Shore Acres touch. Flip talking comics rate only a yawn. And what is true of songs and plays is true of books. The smutty novel cannot be sold in even cut rate departments and in the publishers lists this fall are a half hundred books reminiscent of When Knighthood Was in Flower school in a cellar—the high low, it were. YOUR HEALTH

An Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

How many of us give thought to foods eaten by travelers? When I speak of travelers, I have in mind those persons who for long periods are away from home and the fresh food supply of the home table. Among such are seamen of all classes, prospectors, engineers, and out-of-the-way places for surveying, the opening of a mine, or the building of some huge dam or other engineering feat, are the particular ones in which I am interested. Perhaps their needs are overlooked all too frequently.

In olden times, indeed until only a few years ago, these men were dependent entirely on dried or salt food. In consequence their dietary was naturally most limited. Fresh fruits and vegetables were unheard of, because invention had not yet found a way to supply better food. Today, expeditions starting out are well supplied with every variety of fruit, vegetables, jams, jellies and other delicacies. The meals which Commander Byrd in Little America is supplying to the men of his expedition, are almost equal to those served at home.

Besides supplying millions of families with fresh foods, the canning industry has been the means of saving a great surplus of foodstuffs that otherwise would be an utter waste. In addition, canning makes certain foods available the entire year instead of merely a week or two, or during its particular season.

From every part of the world now come the delicacies of that section. In glass or tin, they are shipped to every country. As so prepared, none of the mineral content is lost and the vitamins are practically the same as in the foods in their fresh form. In some few cases there may be such concentration that the vitamins are actually increased.

Do not hesitate to use canned foods, if fresh are not available. They add much to health and vitality.

Dog Day Inanities.

There are so many marathons, derbies and beauty contests of all sorts at this moment under way in America that in vain the nation strives to keep account of them. It will suffer no harm if it fails in this objective. Too many of them are running in the usual course of midsummer insanity. At the head of this class of adventure might be reckoned the New Jersey contest which is out to win the "hand holding" record for this hemisphere. Somewhere out west a nice old lady has just turned her 400th hour in a rocking chair contest, and thinks she has made a record. We have had the usual run of dancers, flag pole sitters and Pike's Peak peanut pushers, but the hand holders take the cake for devising a method of killing time that might be put to better use.

The sum of all this misdirected effort has the effect of making the nation yawn. It may be able to stand these inanities in summer but let us hope that the first frosts of autumn will mark the end of them. Make no wager though that this metafiction will mature. The police commissioner of Los Angeles has just made announcement that he has equipped his motor car with two horns, the one to be operated by his wife from the rear seat when the chief is en tour. It is supposed to be an expedient that will solve the domestic problem of insufficiency of warning when one motorist may have been inspired by the best of motives, but his example will have its repercussions. It will start other motor morons to thinking up accessories to their cars, to serve as rapid a purpose, and so we have every promise that the noise nuisance will become even more acute.

The Pride of Possession.

Have you ever noted the joy of a man who has purchased a home after having rented for years? Life holds a different view-point. He has something to work for—something to plan for—something to encourage him to make improvements in home and manner of living. Despite your observations you may be hesitating about purchasing. You think of the years it may be before you will actually own it. The sacrifices you must make to meet installments, perhaps, and other expenses of tax and upkeep, are burdens you don't want to assume. You don't want to be worried by debt.

Getting right down to brass tacks your hesitation is really that you do not wish to sacrifice any good time, for which ready money might be needed.

Perhaps you have not laid aside enough for a final payment.

You cannot make even this accumulation without cutting some of the things that you enjoy.

It may be personal, not family sacrifice and denial, that hinders you.

Aren't you selfish to let your own personal pleasure be a weighing consideration?

ANNIE LAURIE'S TIMELY ADVICE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

Will you please advise me whether it is proper for a girl to ask a fellow to come to see her or if the fellow should ask the girl if he can come to see her?

MAGGIE: A young lady may gracefully indicate that she would be pleased to have a young man call without offering a definite invitation. For instance, she may say: "I would like you to meet my mother and father; they are such dears." Or "I'd be glad to see you again sometime." This relieves him of the fear of being embarrassed by a refusal. However, it is he who asks to call and takes the initial step.

SON OF SHOWMAN

Tom O'Brien, who plays William

Boyd's chief adversary in "The air thriller, now showing at the American theater has put in most of his life before an audience.

Tom is the son of T. J. O'Brien, for thirty-two years manager of Barnum & Bailey's circus, and he made his first professional public appearance in a tent show at the age of four. Since then he has played in circus bands, ridden with his first screen appearance with

Broncho Billy Anderson at Santa

a naked Indian and a "dress suit

O'Brien plays "Poison" Dugan,

"MAKING GRADE"

SCORES HIT

Lois Moran and Edmund Lowe made decided hits last night at the Ceramic theater in "Making the Grade," showing a crowded house that no matter how insufferable a young snob may be, there always is hope of redemption. The picture is a delight as a romance and a winner as a comedy. Alfred E.

Green has taken full advantage of the scope offered in this George

Ade story.

Lowe, as the youthful millionaire

snob who returns to his small home town in America after some years abroad, meets his nemesis in the person of Miss Moran who undertakes to make a real man of him.

The ensuing situations reveal some of the best comedy construction we have seen on the screen.

The director has handled his players with deftness and restraint.

Laughs come naturally and often.

The supporting cast is good and the settings are beautiful. "Making

"better pictures" Fox has been responsible for during the last few ed "On With the Show," the first 100 per cent natural color, talking, singing, dancing picture a Warner

Bros. Vitaphone production in technicolor.

The color is soft and glamorous and has none of the eye-offending rawness which has marked other and earlier attempts at reproducing the hues of nature. Vitaphone, perfect in rendition of the speech and songs and music of "On With the Show," is given marvelous reality by this innovation. The story has to do with a company of stranded troupers, who, while their amusing adventures go on, are playing a musical fantasy known as "The Phantom Lover." The cast includes such screen favorites as

Betty Compson, Arthur Lake, Sally O'Neill, Joe E. Brown, Louise

Fazenda, Ethel Waters, William

Bakewell, Fairbanks Twins, Sam

Hardy, Lee Moran, Wheeler Oak-

man, Harry Gribbon, Thomas Jef-

erson, Harmony Emperors' Quarter and a dancing beauty chorus of one hundred. The story is by Humphrey Pearson, the scenario

by Robert Lord and Alan Crossland directed. Grant Clarke and Harry Akst did words and music and the dance and stage presentations are by Larry Ceballos.

RUSSIA, CHINA

SEEK PEACE

LONDON, Aug. 23.—(INS.)—Efforts are still being made to bring about a peaceful settlement of the warlike controversy between China and Russia, it was stated in a

Peking message to the Daily Telegraph today.

The dispatch states that Chinese

Commissioner of Foreign Affairs

Tsia is hastening to Manchouli in an attempt to reopen the Sino-

Russian conversations which were abruptly broken off several weeks ago.

Tsia belittled the incidents which have recently taken place on the Manchurian border, asserting that a state of war does not exist, and that no general hostilities have commenced.

EVANGELIST PICTURES EIGHT BIBLE BRIDES

Rev. William Heslop Fills Pulpit of Nazarene Church.

BIBLE STUDENT Campaign Ends With Two Services Next Sunday.

There are eight brides mentioned in the Bible which taken altogether give a complete picture of the Bible. The Rev. William S. Heslop, D. D., head of the theological department of Olivet college, Olivet, Ill., to a large throng of people at the First Nazarene church last evening.

Attracted by his pertinent expositions of the Bible since his initial appearance at the church last Sunday he has been attracting nightly additional persons to hear him, many of them coming from other denominations in the city. He will speak again this evening and conclude with two discourses on Sunday.

"The first bride mentioned in the Bible is Eve," he said last evening. "Adam was put into a deep sleep, his side was opened and from his open side there was taken a life portion of his own body, a bride was built and bride and bridegroom lived and reigned together over the new creation."

"Adam in a deep sleep sets forth our Lord Jesus Christ in the deep sleep of death on Calvary. His side being opened sets forth the wounded side of Christ."

"From the open side of Adam there was built a Bride and this sets forth the glorious truth that from the wounded side of Christ there has flowed a stream of water and blood that even now is regenerating and sanctifying and preparing His Bride who shall reign and rule with Him over a new restored creation."

"Just as Eve was taken from Adam's body so the Bride of Christ is a selection from the body of Christ which is His church."

"The church (or called out ones) is not the bride of Christ but His body and from the body there is taken or selected the Bride of Christ."

Other brides mentioned in the Bible, he said, were Rebekah, Rachel, Asenath, Zipporah, Abigail and Solomon's Egyptian bride.

NO SKIRTS FOR SCOUTS IN U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—(INS.)—But skirts won't go in America," declared Duglio Ryden and Brinkley Bass, Boy Scouts of Beaumont, Texas, who stopped here today en route home from the world jamboree of scouts in England. In the opinion of Bass, the Prince of Wales wore "sloppy" shorts when he visited the scouts' camp.

"Well, anyway the prince has a way about him that makes one forget the shorts," another Texas scout declared. Some of the scouts arrived here wearing English monies and carrying ash walking sticks.

FIVE DIE IN AUTO CRASH

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 23.—(INS.)—Five persons, including Miss Ruth Jacks, 16, Toledo Scott high school sophomore, were killed in an automobile crash at Elk Rapids, Mich., today, according to a long distance telephone call which the girl's mother received.

Her brother, Mortimer Jacks, 14, died six weeks ago from spinal meningitis.

No details of the accident were known here.

Break Ground

Institution, and by the end of 1928, bids had been received and awarded, but before the approval of the attorney general and director of finance could be obtained the appropriation elapsed again.

"An examination of the plans prepared then showed that the upkeep for such an institution as was planned would be a burden on the shoulders of the loyal people of Ohio."

"We, therefore, decided to start all over again. In order that delay might not again occur, we secured permission to hire special architects to rush the project."

"The present plans differ from those originally adopted in several particulars. We omitted the construction of an administration building, and simplified the construction of the power house."

"The completion of the present building will house about 450 patients. In addition to this, we propose to construct soon farm buildings which will care for 150 other persons."

"Our plans for the future contemplate an institution to house 3,000 patients in the main cottages and such additional number as may be accommodated in the colonies which we will establish on the various parts of the farm."

"Today, we have the final realization of plans which started ten years ago."

"Your excellency, governor of Ohio, I hand you here a silver spade and on behalf of the people of Ohio request that you remove the first shovelful of earth which will mark the beginning of the actual construction."

WOMAN OUT OF AIR DERBY

Plane Damaged in Crash With Auto At Pecos, Tex.

PECOS, Texas, Aug. 23.—(INS.)—Mrs. Florence Lower Barnes, of San Marino, Cal., today was forced, because of damage to her plane, to withdraw from the women's air derby.

Mrs. Barnes damaged her ship badly when she crashed into an automobile while attempting to take off from the Pecos field yesterday. She remained here overnight while supplies and mechanics were flown from Wichita, Kas., in the hope that the machine could be repaired.

The mechanics today, however, said the verdict that her plane could not be placed in running condition in time for her to catch up with the van of the flyers, now en route from Fort Worth to Tulsa.

She announced then that she would have the machine dismantled and shipped to the factory for overhauling. She planned to fly to Wichita in the relief plane.

GERMAN FLIER LEADS DERBY

FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 23.—(INS.)—Miss Mary von Mack, German flier, led the contestants in the women's Santa Monica-Cleveland air derby away from the local airport today. Miss von Mack took off for Tulsa, next control point, at 9 o'clock.

She was followed at regular intervals by the remainder of the entries, who spent the night here.

FARMER HANGS SELF IN BARN

ELYRIA, O., Aug. 23.—(INS.)—The body of Andrew Matkonis, 60, a farmer, was found hanging from a rope outside a barn today, less than an hour after he had left his wife and children to go about his farm chores.

Coroner Myles J. Perry pronounced the man dead by suicide. Despondency over ill health was advanced as the probable cause for his action.

Solons Want Basement

would not think of omitting the basement," said Councilman Fleming, who offered the motion that the structure be advertised, eliminating "unnecessary parts" which he said could be provided under separate contract. Fleming explained that this would not delay starting work on building and prevent its completion this year. His motion was seconded by Councilman Altman.

Cripple Departments Moore Warns Service-Safety Director Moore, who attended the meeting, declared that he was opposed to any further bond issue for the building and said that bids, which were to be opened on September 3, figured only a basement sufficiently large enough for the heating plant only. The change in the basement, he declared, would mean a saving of $6,000. Another saving of $1,000, he pointed out, was the substitution of cement in place of tile in the lavatories and toilet rooms, while still another $1,000 could be saved by equipping only those doors which will be needed for the exit of fire trucks with electrical devices for opening.

Save $10,000 by Changes.

"These changes," Moore stated, "total $8,000, while approximately $2,000 more was lopped off in minor details which, with those already enumerated, in no way effect the efficiency or stability of the building."

"The electors," Moore continued, "turned down the proposition of a new fire station at last November's election and this building would not have been contemplated, with the sinking fund for the redemption of the bonds inside the 15-mill limitation allowed by law, had not the state fire marshal condemned the building, ordered it razed and a new fire-proof building erected."

Continuing the director reminded council that the sinking fund for the entire cost of this building must be placed inside the 15-mill limit of law, which is already levied to the last "farthing."

"Not another penny can be levied and any increase must be taken care of by a curtailment of the operating revenues of the city. Only by the most rigid economy are we able to keep the present number of policemen and firemen on the payroll and any impairment of the operating revenues means a reduction of these forces."

"True there have not been many street improvements this year, but the $60,000 already appropriated for this building together with other propositions brings the bond issues and consequent sinking fund levy away above the average year for the city's share for street improvements and kindred expenditures."

The Duplicate Shrinks.

"Our tax duplicate," he reminded council, "last year amounted to $32,202,049, while for next year the sum total on which taxes are levied has naturally dwindled and the valuation of four abandoned potteries must yet be largely written off, thus reducing the funds that will be available for operating expenses next year."

"I cannot conceive," Moore said in closing, "that this council wants to hand down to its successor the embarrassment of a condition that will require drastic curtailment of the city's activities in the manner that will affect the present roster of police and firemen or kindred activities."

Councilman Lindell argued that the proposed bond issue would only take $6,000 a year from the operating expenses of the city inasmuch as the bonds are to be retired over a period of 20 years.

Liner Leaves Tokyo

chosen excellent flying weather for the start of the Pacific leg of his trip, and that he was driving his charge at an average of better than 85 miles per hour.

It was not known here whether the Graf's commander was following the practice established on the trans-Atlantic journey of using only three or four of the Zeppelin's five motors to conserve fuel, or whether all five motors were being used to develop full speed.

The reports from Taira and Seno indicated Dr. Eckener was following the course tentatively announced before the start from Kasumigaura via Hokkaido, the Kurile Islands, the Aleutian Islands and down the Pacific coast to Los Angeles.

Starts at 1:12 a. m.

KASUMIGAURA AIR FIELD, TOKIO, Aug. 23.—Starting out on the longest sustained flight over water ever attempted by aircraft, the passenger dirigible Graf Zeppelin left the Kasumigaura Air Field at 3:12 p. m. today (1:12 a. m. East Liverpool time) for Los Angeles on the third leg of its epochal journey.

The "Hind" which had held the giant air liner captive at the airport for 36 hours beyond the time which she was scheduled to start fled with the slackening of crosswinds which had swept the field all during the morning, and under the expert direction of Commander Dr. Hugo Eckener, the huge craft started on the third lap of its epochal journey without difficulty.

The dirigible lost no time getting into its 85-mile an hour stride, for 14 minutes after the take-off the Graf was reported over Mito City, 65 miles north of Tokio and more than twenty miles from the aerodrome.

The Zeppelin was accompanied by a fleet of five Japanese military airplanes which took off from Kasumigaura shortly before the Graf launched herself into the air.

As the probable time of the hop-off had been announced several hours previously, a mammoth crowd had assembled at the aerodrome to bid the aerial monarch farewell. It was estimated that several hundred thousand persons, including German and other foreign residents as well as Japanese, were on the field when the Zeppelin soared majestically into the sky.

The Graf had been ready since midnight to take off on the long trans-Atlantic flight. At that time repairs to the rear motor gondola, damaged when the ship was being walked out of its hangar for the take-off early yesterday, had been completed, and the passengers had assembled for the start.

But a cross-wind of sharp velocity was blowing across the field, and Dr. Eckener decided it would be risky to attempt to take the ship from its hangar until the breeze subsided.

About noon, it was seen that the wind was decreasing in velocity, and Dr. Eckener again ordered all made ready for the start. The ground crew of 500 Japanese soldiers, sailors and marines was re-assembled, and the passengers took their places in the main gondola.

Extreme care was used by the ground crew to prevent a repetition of Thursday's accident, when the gondola housing the rear motor caught a door jamb, bending the struts and duralumin supports and necessitating the first 24 hours' delay.

But the ground crew, obviously anxious to atone for the mishap which delayed the take-off and caused the Graf to sustain the first setback in its time-table schedule had suffered since the start of the round the world flight, eased the ship from the hangar with exquisite care, and the dirigible came out onto the field without so much as scraping her silver sides.

A few moments later, Dr. Eckener gave the command which started the dull throbbing of the Graf's powerful engines, and then came the long-awaited order to cast off. The ground crew released the mooring ropes, which were immediately hauled up through hatchways in the under side of the dirigible and as the engines pounded out a symphony of power, the Zeppelin slowly got under way.

School Staff Ready For Impending Term

Wooster Man Succeeds Trumbull and Will Aid Coach Dave Evans; McKinley Corps Completed.

WELLSVILLE, Aug. 23.—With the appointment of Earl Russell, of Wooster, to succeed Robert Trumbull as a member of the high school teaching staff, and Miss Caroline Eaton to fill the vacancy in the McKinley building staff created by the resignation of Miss Freda Furrer, school authorities are ready for the new fall term beginning Wednesday, Sept. 4.

Russell will act as faculty manager of athletics as well as instructor in social science. In addition he will aid David Evans, athletic director, in coaching duties. Russell played football at Ashland and Denison colleges.

No principal has been named as yet for the McKinley building, this being under consideration now by Superintendent S. E. Daw. Miss Eaton will instruct pupils of the fourth grade.

Opening has been delayed one day this fall in order to give teachers an extra day for travel following Labor day.

Freshmen will report for enrollment Tuesday, Sept. 3, at the high school when they will make up their programs for the following year.

The enrollment will be at least normal, probably a little heavier than usual, according to the expectations of school authorities.

Stomach Disorders and Nervousness Defied Treatment For Ten Years. This Fine Old Indian Remedy Quickly Routed Them.

Those who suffer from stomach disorders and nervousness should find in the report of Mr. Thomas Richards, 211 W. 3rd St., E. Liverpool, Ohio, renewed health since Owa-Ton-Na brought him new found health after many other methods and treatments tried had failed. He says: "I suffered from a severe case of stomach trouble. I tried everything I ever heard of to find relief yet nothing seemed to do me any good. Food would lay in my stomach for hours at a time and almost feel like a lump of lead there."

"It wasn't long after I started to take Owa-Ton-Na that I could see a change in my condition. My bowels started to function normally. Once again I could sit down at the table and enjoy a good meal. Food tasted fine and I didn't have to be afraid that I would suffer for hours after eating. Dizzy spells disappeared. I began to get new pep and energy. My bowels functioned normally and I sleep like a top. I can do a day's work without feeling all tired out before I get half-way through. Anyone who is not in good health should take this great Owa-Ton-Na as it certainly is wonderful."

ROME, Aug. 23.—Italy's hopes for victory in the Schneider cup airplane races to be held off the coast of Wight, England, next month received another severe setback today.

Captain Giuseppe Motta, a member of the Italian Schneider cup team, was almost instantly killed when his plane plunged into the sea during a trial flight.

The plane, built especially for the races, was totally destroyed. Only a few weeks ago another Italian Schneider cup plane met a similar fate at the same spot, but the pilot escaped with minor injuries.

Captain Motta was one of the best members of the Schneider team, and was regarded as one of Italy's chief hopes of winning the coveted aviation trophy.

Sheriffs' Instructed In Method of Tax Collections.

"At the present time, the 1928 delinquent real estate tax lists are being received at this office from the sheriffs of their respective counties and the law provides that all these lists must reach the auditor's office on or before Sept. 1, 1929.

"These 1928 delinquent real estate taxes will remain in and may be paid at this office for the period of one year. At times, I would have choking spells and could hardly get my breath. I was very nervous, underweight, and completely devoid of strength. After trying most everything under the sun, and becoming worse right along, I had begun to think I would have to live a life of constant misery. But thanks to ORANGE ROOT, I am now a well man again after 7 years of suffering. I can eat everything and nothing hurts me. All those awful gas pains have left me, and my nerves are quiet and calm. I got up in the mornings feeling rested and refreshed. I am stronger in every way, and never felt better in my life. I have gained three pounds already and still going up. The golden NUGGETS are wonderful liver regulators, and all in all, I think these great Orange Root medicines a blessing to suffering mankind. I am telling everybody about my experience with these great medicines and hope all those suffering as I did get started at once on them for I am sure they will do for them what they did for me." All you folks suffering with indigestion, rheumatism, neuritis, or if you have had the flu and are weak and in a bad run-down condition, go at once to Mathew's Medicine Store, get three or four bottles of the TONIC, a box of the golden NUGGETS, take them according to directions, and watch the rapid improvement in your condition. KATIES CAPTURE BATTLE AT WELLSVILLE

Mackall Stars On Hilltop

His Single Also Scores Winning Runs in Third.

OVERCOMING a fourrun lead that Wellsville had amassed in the first inning, Jack Orr's Katies climbed back in to second place last night with a 6 to 4 win over the Nicholson nine, the victory breaking a deadlock for the second berth.

Don Mackall's relief pitching, coupled with the ability of the Katies to climb when they needed them, gave the visitors the decision. Stoffell started on the hilltop for the Katies but his curves were not functioning with their customary effectiveness and he gave way to Mackall before the inning was completed.

Mackall took up the burden with two runs already in and the bases jammed when he walked out to the hilltop. Two more runs scored in that frame but there after Mackall kept the seven hits he permitted pretty well scattered.

The Wellsville nine had opportunities to count frequently in the concluding innings but they could not get to Mackall when they needed hits most.

Kick's nine outslugged the Katies, getting 10 singles off Stoffell and Mackall. Bud Sainor got three of them in four trips to the plate. Andy O'Brosky and Mackall got two apiece, and both hit timely, figuring in driving in the winning markers.

Jack O'Brosky and Eddie Bayley starred in the defense, O'Brosky gobbling in six hits in center.

The Wellsville club got off to a great start in the first inning when they scored four runs but were unable to maintain the pace. Lefty Davis drew a walk and went to third on Males's sacrifice, scoring on G. Wagner's single to right. Mundy singled to right and Wagner went to third. Sainor drove one to right, scoring Wagner. Talbott walked and filled the sacks.

Mackall relieved Stoffell at this juncture. Canne forced Talbott at second, Mundy scoring and Sainor going to third. Sainor and Canne engineered a double steal, Sainor finishing.

The Katies got two runs back in the first. Coleman started it with a walk. He stole second and continued to third when Males's throw went over Talbott's head. Kinsey singled to right, driving in Coleman. He stole second and counted on Jack O'Brosky's single to center.

Another K. T. K. run crossed the plate in the second. A base on balls was responsible to start it. McConnell got a pass and moved up on Andy O'Brosky's infield blow, scoring on Coleman's single over short.

The Katies clinched the game in the third with a three-run rally. Kinsey was hit by a pitched ball.

Chicago Scouts are scouring the highways and byways of baseball for a first baseman to take the place of Captain Freddy Grimm, (above), who, they say, will be out of the lineup for at least a month as a result of a broken hand suffered in the second game of the double header with the Giants in New York Tuesday.

INTER-CITY LEAGUE

The chances are that the Katies will NOT be rooting for Laughlin tonight when the Newell league leaders clash with Wellsville at Nicholson Field.

If Wellsville should win, Laughlin would be only a half-game in front of the Katies. In all probability Dugman will go to the mound for the Newell nine.

SENATORS REGISTER 8TH IN ROW

Only Half Game Behind Colonels, in 5th Place.

The eighth consecutive victory was chalked up for the Columbus Senators in the American Association pennant race yesterday and today those hardies have taken a new lease on life, hoping for better things.

As it stands now, the Senators are only a half game behind Louisville in fifth place. When Columbus won its sixth straight, the Capital City rosters stopped hoping for more wins and had expected a loss, but that team is apparently headed for the first division.

Their eighth victory was at the expense of Minneapolis yesterday by an 11 to 5 decision. Minneapolis is a safe third in the race by reason of a large lead piled up in the early part of the season, and not because of recent playing. Columbus is sixth.

Louisville dropped another tilt with Kansas City, the league leaders. The Colonels are now in a precarious position.

St. Paul, second place aggregation, topped Toledo for a 13 to 4 win yesterday. The Mudhens are a very distant last, meaning that the cellar will provide their lodging for some time to come.

Milwaukee and Indianapolis didn't play. The former is seventh and the Hoosiers are fourth.

Games today are: Indianapolis at Columbus; Toledo at Louisville; St. Paul at Milwaukee and a rest day for Kansas City and Minneapolis.

According to the weather indications at Columbus it looked as if the game there would be postponed because of wet grounds or rain.

Louisville is taking on an easy series with Toledo, which may and probably will give them a string of victories. Meanwhile Columbus will be fighting hard to win games from Indianapolis.

ARMOUR LEADS WESTERN OPEN

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 23.—With Tommy Armour, slender Detroit Scot, who was 1927 National open champion, holding a precarious one stroke lead over Horton Smith, Joplin, Mo., competition waxed keener today in the Western open golf championship on the Ozaukee course. The Detroit's score was 33-32-65.

About 170 contestants who scored 80 and under survived for the second round today. Nine have broken par with rounds under 70.

Armour, Tam O'Shanter club professional, was better than his score, for he missed holeable putts on the first, second, sixth and seventh greens. The performance set a course record, however.

FONTAINE LANDS AT VANDALIA

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 23.—Cracking 99 out of 100 targets, John B. Fontaine of Philadelphia today was winner of the preliminary handicap of the grand American trapshooting tournament.

L. Ludwig, St. Benedict, Ia., was second with 98. W. S. Bowman,

Battling Cubs Due In Cincy

52 Extra Policemen Hired for Bruins' Invasion.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 23.—Recalling the prediction of Manager Jack Hendricks of the Cincinnati Reds that there would be "something doing" when the Chicago Cubs came to Cincinnati, President C. J. McDiarmid of the local club today engaged 52 extra police for next Sunday's double-header.

The extra guards, including 32 members of the city force and 20 private policemen, hired to augment the regular park complement, will hover about the players' dugouts.

Feelings between the Cubs and the Reds, never was any too cordial in recent years, became particularly bitter as a result of the fistic encounters in which Outfielder Hack Wilson of the Cubs and Pitcher Ray Kolp and Red Donahue of Cincinnati figured in the last series in Chicago between the two clubs.

Special trains will bring thousands of Cub rosters here. Louisville fans have reserved a block of 1,300 seats behind the Cub bench to cheer the team of Joe McCarthy, former Louisville manager.

So great is the demand for seats that the gates will be opened at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. There are 15,000 unreserved seats for early comers.

BUCS BEAT GIANTS IN OPENER, 6-2

Jess Petty, in Top Form, Gives Foes 6 Blows.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The Pirates successfully repulsed the first thrust of the Giants in John McGraw's battle to wrest second place from the Buccaneers, defeating the home team, 6 to 2, here yesterday in the opener of a four-game series. The Pirates now lead the Giants by six games.

WOMAN FOILS GAS COMPANY "INSPECTOR"

Stranger Flees When Telephone Call is Made.

SEARCH MADE

Man Believed to Have Robbed Vine Street
Homes.

Unidentified thieves who, posing as electricians, obtained entrance to two Vine street homes Tuesday, getting $15 in cash at one place, were thwarted by a Chestnut street housewife yesterday. Publicity on the operations of the pair evidently had preceded them.

This time they posed as "gas men." But the woman demanded to see their credentials. One of them produced a book of some sort but it didn't go over so good.

"Why, we've been around to all of these houses here," said the pseudo "gas man" very appealingly. "We've just gotta inspect these pipe fittings and lights."

"That so? Well, wait here just a second and I'll check up with the gas company."

The woman "checked up" and returned to the door but her visitors had departed in the meantime. Police, called by officials of the Manufacturers' Light & Heat company, searched the neighborhood for the bogus "inspectors" but no trace of them could be found.

2,800 APPLY FOR POLICE JOBS

CLEVELAND, Aug. 23.—(INS)—The terse notice, "police wanted," posted by the city of Cleveland has flooded the civil service commission with applications. More than 2,800 applications—nearly triple the usual number—are on file with the commission today.

Belief that the cause for the unusually heavy application list is economic, was advanced when it was learned that many of the applicants are desirous of trying a policeman's life because of the attraction that it is a steady job "for 25 years if you make good," and has no off-season.

vesting, and it is estimated that more than 1500 carloads will be shipped to market.

This is the largest crop ever to be grown. The apricot and pear crop is also heavy this year, and quality is much finer than in many seasons. This is attributed to moderate rainfall.

TERN INVASION HITS FISHERIES

MARTINSVILLE, Ind.—(INS)—An invasion of terns is causing the owners of the world's greatest gold fish hatcheries here considerable concern.

Flocks of the birds are raiding the 239 ponds of the hatcheries and diving down after the golden minnows. Since every dive represents a minnow costing at least ten cents, the losses are running into hundreds of dollars.

Officials of the hatchery said they also had troubles with turtles, minks, snakes and even big bullfrogs—all of whom enjoyed gold fish menus.

While the silk industry in Italy is having hard times, the making of rayon is booming.

12,000 ATTEND FINAL CONCERT

BOSTON—More than 12,000 persons thronged Acoustic Shell on the Charles River Esplanade at the final symphony concert of the season. The tribute accorded Conductor Arthur Fiedler presages continuance of the concerts next year.

BRITAIN SEEKS TOURIST TRADE

LONDON.—(INS).—To attract overseas visitors to Britain a great campaign is being organized by the "Come to Britain" movement. The question of hotels is being tackled first. A census of London hotel accommodation is about to be made, and the actual accommodation at the present time is to be compared with the likely requirements in the next few years. American tourists are visiting England in greater numbers every year, and the aim of the "Come to Britain" movement is to organize and stimulate their interest. More than 5,000 diggers took part in the diamond rush when the South African government recently opened farms in the Elizabeth district of Lichtenburg, reputed to be rich in diamond deposits.

Hot weather calls for light, crisp foods. Eat delicious Kellogg's Corn Flakes at least once a day in summer. A bowlful, with cool milk or cream, supplies nourishment without "heating" the body. Kellogg's are one of the most healthful treats your grocer has. So crisp and easy to digest they really help you feel cool.

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are wonderfully inviting three meals a day. Ideal for the children's supper. Add fresh or canned fruits or honey.

Always insist on Kellogg's, the original Corn Flakes. 12,000,000 people daily prefer them. Always extra crisp.

Look for the red-and-green package. At grocers. Served by hotels, restaurants, on dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Oven-fresh in the patented waxtite wrapper.

FILE THREE DIVORCE SUITS

Wives Seek Decrees in Actions Filed at Lisbon.

Minnie Shultz, 19 Mawley avenue, Salem, through her counsel, C. K. Scott, has filed an action for divorce in common pleas court against her husband Harry Shultz, 242 Ridge avenue, Leetonia. The couple will have been married 40 years Oct. 30 next, the ceremony having been performed at Leetonia in Oct. 1889. Three children are all of age.

Gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty have been given as grounds for action, and under the latter clause Mrs. Shultz declares that because of the abusive language her husband used toward her she was compelled to leave him last February. In addition to a decree, the plaintiff asks the court to restore her to her maiden name, that of Minnie Huddleston.

Through her counsel G. Jay Clark, Hazel Mitchell has filed a divorce action against her husband Frank Mitchell, whose last known address was Canonsburg, Pa. Wilful absence for over a period of three years and gross neglect of duty are grounds set up in the petition. The couple were married July 27, 1920.

Wilful absence for over a period of three years and gross neglect of duty is set up in the petition for divorce filed by Attorney James E. Davis on behalf of Mildred Irene Wright against her husband Roscoe Wright whose whereabouts are unknown to Mrs. Wright. They were married March 17, 1919. The couple have three children aged 10, 7 and 5 years.

Heart Trouble or Indigestion?

Heartburn, Pressure Around Heart Palpitation, A Feeling of Fullness, Shortness of Breath.

THIS SIMPLE 3-MINUTE TEST
TELLS WHAT'S WRONG.

While there are many people who really have Heart Trouble, there are many thousands more who are literally "scared to death" because they think they have it.

To live in constant fear of Heart Failure is a terrible handicap, especially when probably 90 per cent of the self-diagnosed Bad Heart symptoms—Palpitation, shortness of breath, difficult breathing, a feeling of fullness or pressure around the Heart—are mainly caused by a sour, gassy, upset stomach. To prove that this is true and that your past worries have been a sad mistake—simply make this three-minute test and watch results!

From any good druggist obtain a couple ounces of pure Bisulphate of Magnesia (either powder or tablets) and beginning with tomorrow take a teaspoonful of the powder or four tablets immediately after each meal—and, if the usual distressing symptoms fail to appear, you may safely rest assured that you have found your trouble.

This is a pleasant, inexpensive test that seldom fails to relieve stomach distress, Gas, Sourness and Bloating—almost instantly, and a single trial proves its value.
Be sure and ask for Bisulphate of Magnesia, not a laxative.—Adv.

BAKING COMPANY SUED BY GIRL

Benta Adams was knocked from a pony she was riding near the Floodin bridge on the Lisbon-Leetonia road by a truck of the General Baking company, Aug. 14, last, and, as a result, a petition claiming $1,000 damages has been filed against the company. With the petition as filed by Attorney C. C. Connell, an answer has also been filed by Billingsley & Moore, in which an admission is made by the company that the child was knocked from her mount, but that the injuries are not as severe as they are claimed to be.
